HOT FIGHT FOR NEXT CONVENTION

HOT SPRINGS SEEMS TO BE IN LEAD WITH INDIANAPOLIS STRONG SECOND.

INDIANA CAPITAL CITY'S BOOM A SURPRISE—VOTE WILL BE TAKEN TODAY ON THE QUESTION.

Hot Springs, 1907!

Indianapolis, 1907!

The International Typographical union will this morning at 11 o'clock choose its next meeting place. It promises to be a hot fight, but Hot Springs seems to be in the lead. Indianapolis is the international headquarters, and by many it will be looked upon as a particularly appropriate selection, following the holding of the convention in the Home city. Being in a populous district and easily accessible, it will probably be strongly supported by delegations from the eastern and middle western states.

The Indianapolis boom was not sprung until yesterday afternoon, when on the floor of the convention Delegate Tom S. Reynolds of Typographical Union No. 76, placed the Indiana city in nomination. Hot Springs has been out after the convention for the last two months. It has added strength from the withdrawal of Vicksburg, which had been strongly supported by the south. As the southwest has never before entertained the typos, and because of its superior facilities for entertainment, Hot Springs has a strong following.

The nominations were made a special order of business at 3 45 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Vicksburg was the first to be placed in nomination. After invitations had been read the mayor and city council, the

PRINTERS REFUSE TO RECOGNIZE I. W. OF W.

By a unanimous vote, the delegates of the International Typographical union yesterday afternoon refused to recognize the Industrial Workers of the World as a labor organization. This action was taken on a resolution presented to the congress by Delegate Jacobs of Pittsburg, Pa., No. 175, which was referred back by the committee on resolutions with a favorable recommendation. The Industrial Workers of the World is a socialist organization, encouraged by the Western Federation of Miners.

SPROULE OF S. P. RY. CO., IS HONORED

IS GIVEN HIGHEST INDUSTRIAL TRAFFIC POSITION IN THE COUNTRY.

ASSUMES TRAFFIC MANAGEMENT OF SMELTING CORPORATIONS, EQUAL OF GOODMAN.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—Freight Traffic Manager Wm. Sproule, of the Southern Pacific company, has been offered and has accepted what is probably the highest industrial traffic position in the country. October 1 next he assumes the traffic management of the American Smelting and Refining company, American Smelting Securities company, the Smelters Steamship company, and a score of smaller corporations, including railways in Nevada and Alaska and smelters and mines in both continents of the western hemisphere.

On the Pacific coast alone, these companies own smelters at Tacoma, Everett, San Francisco and Selby. Their properties in Utah, Colorado, Nevada, Mexico and South America are immense. Their holdings in South America are valued at a hundred million dollars or more.

Sproule entered the service of the Southern Pacific as a clerk in the freight department in 1882 and leaves it for the highest traffic position in the west, after 24 years of continuous service. It is known that President Harriman and Traffic Director Stubbs were reluctant to accept his resignation, though it is said that Mr. Harriman is, with Jacob Schiff, his associate in the Harriman lines, a large stockholder in the smelter properties, of which Daniel Guggenheim is president and therefore has not altogether lost Sproule's services.

The position offered Sproule gives him jurisdiction over the relations with carriers of probably the largest volume of traffic controlled by one organization, and makes him traffic master of several railroads and steamship lines owned by the smelter companies. It is said that the offer made Sproule is most flattering, and though little information on that subject can be secured directly, it is believed it carries with it a salary of $25,000 per year. His headquarters will be at 71 Broadway, New York.

Mr. Sproule tonight said:

"The nature of the offer from the corporation with the direction of H. R. Gregory is such as to be one of my hardest decisions, and is the most flattering for my leaving the service with the Southern Pacific, for twenty-four years, with two such master minds as C. P. Huntington and E. H. Harriman controlling its destiny, has been most interesting and agreeable and I break my present business and personal associations with the keenest regret."

WOMAN SERIOUSLY INJURED AT SALE

BARGAIN DAY RUSH THAT RESULT FATALLY WENT BADLY HURT IN CROWD.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Aug. 15. One woman perhaps fatally injured, many others more or less seriously hurt is the result of a bargain day rush at W. F. Woolworth & Company's store, 617 Felix street, today.

The chief of police ordered the store closed, but rescinded the order when he found that the squad of the police on duty there had the situation under control. Seriously injured:

Mrs. Susan Welland, 840 North 7th street.

Numbers of others were carried out of the crowd overcome by heat and in a fainting condition, but were able to go home without medical attendance.

HYDRO WON'T PAY REBATE

HAS ITS $19,343.79 FOR CITY LIGHTS AND WILL HOLD ON TO IT.

COUNCIL TO HOLD ANOTHER SPECIAL MEETING TODAY. COMMITTEE MAKES SUBMITS REPORT.

Since February, 1906, when section 8 of the Jackson franchise went into effect the city of Colorado Springs has paid to the Pike's Peak Hydro-Electric company the sum of $19,843.79 for furnishing the city with "standard 2,00-candlepower arc lights." And now it has been ascertained that these lights only range from 150 to 450 candlepower strength. Has the city any claim for a rebate from the Hydro company?

This question was discussed by members of the city council last evening for more than an hour. The meeting, which was held in the mayor's office, was attended by George A. Taff, president and Karl C. Schuyler, attorney for the Hydro company, and by W. L. Chenoweth, one of the attorneys for the city.

While representatives of the press were not allowed to attend the meeting it was learned last night that Mr. Taff and Mr. Schuyler told the council without minding words that the Hydro company will positively refuse to pay a rebate to the city, taking the attitude of "what are you going to do about it?"

A heated argument followed, which

CARNIVAL OF MURDER IS INAUGURATED

TERRORISTS AND REVOLUTIONISTS ATTACK POLICE AND TROOPS IN POLAND.

BOMBS AND REVOLVERS EMPLOYED WITH DEADLY EFFECT—WARSAW SURROUNDED.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 15.—Acting apparently with a definite plan, and at a signal, the terrorists and revolutionists today inaugurated a carnival of murderous attacks with bombs and revolvers on the police and troops in various cities in Poland, echoes of which are heard from Samara, Ufa, Yalta, Kiev and even far away China, where Acting Chief of Police Gorpinchenko was slain almost on his own doorstep.

The revolutionists campaign flames out with especial virulence at Warsaw, where over a score were slain in the streets and many more were wounded. Among the killed, according to the latest official advices, were two sergeants of police, eight patrolmen, three gendarmes, five soldiers, a Hebrew merchant and a woman. The returns are not all in. Policemen and soldiers were shot down like rabbits in the streets. Their assailants, who traveled in small bands almost all escaped among the terrorized but sympathetic populace. The only capture of consequence was a band of ten men who had invaded a grog shop and killed a soldier. These were taken by a passing patrol.

Other Polish cities singled out by the terrorists were Lodz, where six soldiers, three patrolmen and the wife of a police captain were wounded by the explosions of bombs in the police station, and two soldiers and two terrorists killed in the streets; Radom, where a bomb thrown into the police station killed the wife and child of a captain; Vieislossk, where the chief of police was slain, and Plock, where at a given signal the policemen on all the posts were simultaneously attacked and several of them wounded.

On account of the agrarian disorders and especially several attacks on post trains, the railway between Samara and Zlatoust which already was carrying guards on all its trains was today placed under martial law. Two of these attacks occurred today near Ufa, revolutionists in each case flagging a train, bursting open the doors of the mail cars with bombs and rifling the registered pouches. The booty in one case amounted to $14,000, in the other case the amount is not known.

The Imperial Messenger announces that owing to a serious revolutionary outbreak the whole of the Caucasus, with the exception of a few districts, is under martial law.

TROUBLE NEARING AN ADJUSTMENT

BROOKLYN RAPID TRANSIT CO. WILL GRANT REBATE CONCERNING FIVE CENT FARE DECISION.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—The troubles of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company, with those of its patrons, who since Sunday have acted under an opinion by Supreme Court Justice Gaynor and refused to pay two five-cent fares to Coney Island, are said tonight to be nearing an amicable adjustment, and it is expected that by tomorrow or Friday the seashore traffic over the Brooklyn trolley roads will be running under normal conditions like nor 11 conditions.

The company this afternoon adopted a resolution suggested by Acting Mayor McCowan to give a rebate receipt to every person paying a ten-cent fare, five cents to be returned to the holder if the court of appeals upholds the decision of Justice Gaynor that five cents is the legal fare to Coney Island.

HOME DAY FOR TYPOS

CHIEF SOCIAL EVENT OF CONVENTION WEEK TAKES PLACE TODAY.

BARBECUE, SPEECHES BY PROMINENT MEN, BAND MUSIC AND DANCING ARE FEATURES.

"Home day," the one really distinctive feature of the Colorado Springs convention of the International Typographical union, the day of all the week to which delegates, ex-delegates, visitors, printers, their wives and children have been looking forward with the keenest anticipation, is today.

The convention will meet as usual at 9 o'clock this morning, and will hold one continuous session until 2 o'clock, when business, of which there is a large amount to dispose of today—will be set aside and the delegates will join the throngs that earlier in the day will find their way to the beautiful grounds of the Union Printers home east of the city.

Because of the large International Typographical union crowd in the city the local committee has found it necessary to limit the exercises of "Home day" directly to these, and no one will be admitted to the grounds without an official badge or an invitation.

To many it will be the first visit to the great Union Printers home. To others it will be an occasion of reunion. To others it will recall the 1906 convention for the pleasant gathering is notable in the number of ex-dele-

DROWNING OF BOY IS CAUSE OF SHOOTING

WOMAN ACCUSED OF BEING RESPONSIBLE FOR THE CHILD'S DEATH.

FATHER OF BOY QUARRELS WITH FUNERAL HERMIT AND DRAWS REVOLVER.

FORT MORGAN, Colo., Aug. 15.—Holding the family of John Straufheim responsible for the death of his 3-year-old child by drowning, Fred Jewell, a rancher living five miles southeast of here, yesterday evening shot and probably fatally wounded Straufheim and then gave himself up to the sheriff.

One week ago today, Jay, his little son and a child of Straufheim were playing together on the banks of an irrigation ditch which traverses the ranch. According to Jewell, the Straufheim boy pushed his child into the ditch and Mrs. Straufheim summoned by the cries of her son, hurried to the ditch but instead of attempting to save the boy watched his dying struggles and then went to the Jewell home and told the mother that her son had been drowned.

This story of the tragedy is denied by Mrs. Straufheim who says she had no chance to save the child's life. Her denial was met with a storm of bitter reproaches from Jewell, who, almost insane with grief and rage, ordered Straufheim to take himself off the Jewell ranch at once. This Straufheim, who had been employed by Jewell as a gardener, at first refused to do but later decided to go. Before leaving, however, he went to the garden which he had made and began to destroy it. At this Jewell ran out of the house and a bitter quarrel ensued which culminated in Jewell drawing a revolver and shooting Straufheim.

Jewell is the son of Attorney J. C. Jewell, of Fort Morgan, and is 36 years old. Straufheim is 35 years old and had been employed for some time by Jewell before the death of his child.

LEFT OYSTER BAY.

OYSTER BAY, Aug. 15.—Mrs. Ada L. Esse, or Elizabeth Case, who was to have been taken to Mineola today and given a hearing in lunacy proceedings, growing out of her persistent efforts to interview President Roosevelt, has left Oyster Bay.

HUNDRED PERSONS HURT BY BOMBS IN WARSAW.

WARSAW, Aug. 15—Bombs were thrown at police today in three different parts of the city, resulting in nearly one hundred persons being injured. A panic prevailed throughout Warsaw.

MAN WITH THE MONEY IS MISSING

FORTY-TWO TEXAS WOMEN EXCURSIONISTS LOOKING FOR E. H. REYNOLDS.

MAN NOT SEEN SINCE SUNDAY AFTERNOON. GOOD MONEY GOING TO VICTORIA.

E. H. Reynolds, school principal and prominent society man of Houston, Texas, has been missing from this city since 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, and the 42 Texas women excursionists whom he conducted on a two months' trip to Manitou and Colorado Springs are mourning the loss of considerable money intrusted to him. The entire amount involved is said to aggregate $2,000. The rent for the furnished house at 15 North Nevada avenue, where Reynolds and a portion of his party have been staying, is unpaid, while it is said that Dr. F. H. Martin and Mrs. Lottie Malvia, the respective owners of the two other houses at 801 North Nevada avenue and 630 North Tejon avenue, also have not received the rent due.

Reynolds, according to members of the Texas party, left the house on Nevada avenue at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. He carried his valise and overcoat, saying that he intended getting all his clothes pressed. His 6-year-old son, Ormonde, accompanied him. Neither has been heard from since.

The negro cook whom Reynolds brought here from Houston left for that city today upon hearing that his employer was gone. Grocers, butchers and tradesmen of all kinds are clamoring for their money, while an attempt to attach Reynolds' property was made Tuesday, it is said, but was frustrated owing to the latter's foresight in getting his clothes out of the house.

One month has elapsed of the original

DYNAMITE KILLS FIFTY MEXICANS

EL PASO, Texas, Aug. 15.—It is reported here that between thirty and fifty Mexican laborers and bystanders were killed this afternoon, at 4:30, in Chihuahua, Mexico, by the explosion of a carload of dynamite on the Mexican Central railroad. The car was being transferred for transportation to the Robinson mine at Santa Eulalia. Bodies and pieces of human flesh were hurled into the air and picked up a mile distant. Several American foremen are reported among the dead.

CITY MAY DO ITS OWN PARKING ON CASCADE AVENUE

On account of the high bids received, it is probable that the city of Colorado Springs will undertake the grading, seeding and general improvement work to be done in parking district No. 2, which extends on Cascade avenue from El Norte to Madison street. This work will cost more than $3,000 and will be paid for by assessment on adjoining property.

The bids for doing this work were opened in council meeting last evening. There were two bidders. Shelby Hare bid $23,639.85, and John Stephenson, bid $27,671.10. Hare's bid was for doing the work with the exception of the seeding. As a six per cent levy for the city is to be added to both bids, they are both above the limit set by the city—$23,400.

City Engineer B. H. Ashworth and Street Commissioner A. W. Gray were called upon, and they both said that they thought the city could do the work for less than $23,400.

Alderman R. J. Verner objected to voting on a motion to instruct the city street commissioner to do the work. He said it looked like the city was taking big chances of losing, and none of winning, on the work. It was finally determined to lay the matter over until this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, when council will hold another special meeting.

GOOD DEMAND FOR IVYWILD PROPERTY

An increased demand for real estate in Ivywild is noticeable, according to W. W. Williamson. During the past week Mr. Williamson has sold six houses and seven vacant lots in that section. Two realty transfers in Ivywild were reported by Mr. Williamson yesterday. T. F. Colburn sold to F. W. Warner, of North Dakota, a house and lot on the corner of East First street, the consideration being $850. Mr. Warner intends making his permanent home in Colorado Springs.

STRATTON TAX CASE MAY BE CARRIED TO THE SUPREME COURT

The Stratton estate inheritance tax case will probably be taken into the supreme court for settlement, as State Auditor A. E. Pettit has refused to accept the compromise of the estate's attorneys, who agreed to pay the $24,000 tax on condition that the state relinquish its claim on the $35,000 interest on this amount. Auditor Pettit says that the state should not throw off this interest in order to gain the principal, as both are due to the state.

The attorney general will soon file a petition in the county court of El Paso county requesting that an order issue requiring the estate to give a million dollars bond for the payment of the tax and interest. This move will precipitate a long legal battle.

PATHETIC STORY

JOHN NICHOLSON ARRESTED FOR NOT PROVIDING FOR SICK WIFE.

A pathetic story of neglect was brought to light yesterday when John Nicholson, of 119 South El Paso street, head waiter at McRae's cafe, was arrested on a warrant sworn to by Humane Officer J. F. Neff, charging him with nonsupport.

It is said that Nicholson is not only now refusing to procure a doctor and medicine for his sick wife, but that he allowed his infant child to die last December from want of medical attention.

Mrs. Nicholson has been ill all winter of consumption, and it is said that at times she has been forced to go to her neighbors for food because her husband gave her only $3 a week for household expenses. She also says that he has threatened to desert her.

An infant child died last December, and Mrs. Nicholson says the death was due to the father's refusal to pay a doctor for caring for the child. Just before the child's death Mrs. Nicholson sent for a physician and the father and husband has since refused to pay this physician's bill.

Nicholson is in jail. He will be tried this morning before Justice W. N. Ruby.

HOT FIGHT FOR NEXT CONVENTION

board of trade, the Vicksburg Business league and Vicksburg union No. 42. Delegate M. T. McAuliffe, jr., took the floor and in telling of the natural and historic advantages of the city announced that a entertainment fund of $25,000 could be raised if necessary.

Delegate Edmunds sprung a surprise in behalf of the easterners when he placed Indianapolis in the race. Delegate W. H. Siddons of Indianapolis union No. 1, said that while his city had made no formal invitation, it would appreciate any action of the convention deciding in favor of the Headquarters city and would assure the delegates of a hearty welcome. A. W. Thomson of Cleveland union No. 53, and John P. Stack of Louisville No. 10, seconded the Indianapolis nomination.

W. M. Shelby, delegate from Hot Springs union No. 574, secured the floor and placed the Arkansas resort in nomination in a speech dealing at length with the attractions of the city. Raymond Paschall, "The Arkansaw Skeeter," delegate from Little Rock, in seconding the nomination, made a characteristic speech in which he dwelt upon "southern atmosphere and the prettiest women on earth."

"We want the whole shooting match, and we'll give you a run for your money," he announced. Delegates Charles Fear of Kansas City, W. N. Page of Memphis, C. W. Woodman of Fort Worth, R. L. Wilkes of Atlanta and Harry Gravitt of Ogden, seconded Hot Springs. Such an enthusiastic reception did the Arkansas boom receive, every speaker being loudly cheered, that Delegate McAuliffe announced that he always had been a Democrat and stood for the "solid south," withdrawing in favor of Hot Springs. Cheers followed this announcement.

Letters from B. F. Hill, delegate from St. Joseph union No. 40, were read and placed upon the minutes, inviting the convention to meet there in 1909, while another invitation for the same year was received from Delegate R. M. McCullough. The latter invitation was accompanied by invitations from the Seattle union, Central labor council and the board of directors of the Alaskan exposition which is to be held in Seattle in 1909.

Yesterday's sessions were devoted mainly to the consideration of the report of the laws committee. In the two sessions a great deal of ground was covered, nearly 50 propositions being considered and disposed of. Both sessions were marked by a keenness of debate, logical drawing of issues and dignified discussion, even at times when questions were most sharply contested.

All propositions dealing with changes necessitated by the eight-hour fight were deferred by the committee until the eight-hour committee should make its report. A proposition to legalize the boycott called forth strong denunciation.

The section of the general laws which made a member circulating malicious or false statements against officers of members of the International Typographical union liable to expulsion was unanimously revoked. It was characterized by W. T. Anderson, who introduced the proposition for its revocation, as "an attempt at gag-law which should have no place in the laws of an organization as big and as great as the International Typographical union."

The only report of the committee which was not concurred in was on a proposition submitted by Mrs. C. T. Burgess of Eureka providing that no "suit" shall be barred from working in an office for failure to appear when not under engagement. The committee reported unfavorably, and after a spirited debate, its recommendation was voted down.

The proposition that all decisions of the executive council be printed in the International Typographical Journal called forth considerable discussion and much spirited debate. It was finally declared not feasible and the unfavorable report of the committee concurred in.

A great majority of the propositions submitted to the committee were reported upon unfavorably, few laws therefore being adopted.

The committee on resolutions also reported on several of the propositions referred to it.

The name of Philip McGovern of Newark, N. J., was stricken from the list of ex-delegates for "rating."

The time limit for the introduction of resolutions, amendments, etc., was set at 12 o'clock, noon, today.

dates in attendance who were here ten years ago.

Beginning at 4 o'clock speeches will be made by former Governor Alva Adams, President James M. Lynen, Secretary-Treasurer J. W. Bramwood and W. T. Anderson, chairman of the laws committee.

The unique feature will be the Rocky mountain barbecue. Extensive plans have been made for this truly western form of hospitality. The deep pits have been dug, the coals have been lighted and the tons of meat have been placed in the smoky pits, where over night they have been acquiring the barbecue flavor. A long menu of bread, pickles, cheese, lemonade, watermelon and roasting ears grown in the home gardens, has been prepared.

On the program will be the meeting of the Society of The Typographical Journal correspondents which will be called to order in the Denver room of the home building at 3 o'clock this afternoon. This will be the third annual meeting of the society, and has been called by Herbert Cook, president, and Charles W. Fear, vice president and secretary pro tem. Officers are to be elected and other business, including plans for a banquet, are to be discussed.

During the afternoon a band will furnish music, while in the evening there will be dancing in a pavilion especially erected on the croquet grounds to music furnished by Fink's orchestra. Refreshments will be served at twilight.

In the evening the home will be brilliantly illuminated with thousands of incandescent lights, while fireworks will make the scene one of splendor.

Special car service will be put on by the street car company, which, with the completion of the loop, anticipates no trouble in handling the crowds.

SET MEMORIAL DAY FOR ALL PRINTERS

The last Sunday in May of every year was yesterday set aside by the delegates to the I. T. U. convention as a Typographical union memorial day, to be observed with suitable ceremonies by all subordinate unions. This action was taken by the adoption of a resolution submitted by Delegate H. C. Peate of Lincoln union No. 209 and reported upon favorably by the laws committee. A similar resolution was also submitted by Mr. Goodkey of Washington.

The New York Doctors
IN THE SWEAT BOX.
The People Are Anxious to Learn a Few Facts.

The New York Doctors, whose offices are at 308-9-10 Colorado Bank Building, and who have been in practice in Colorado Springs for the past four years, have been called upon many times by the public to explain their method of treating chronic diseases, as they profess to be specialists in this class of work.

As a usual thing, when a patient calls on a doctor the doctor asks the most of the questions, but it is not always so. People do not care to put themselves under the care of a physician nowadays without they know something about him, his success as a practitioner and his character. The climax of this questioning was reached by an Illinois lawyer the other day, who, probably by exercising his court room tactics, learned more about the NEW YORK DOCTORS' methods in an hour than he will be able to dig in in a month.

He unhesitatingly turned the door knob of their reception room door and stalked into the presence of eight or ten well-dressed ladies and several men. All were pleasantly engaged in conversation and did not act very much like sick people. This seemed to surprise the gentleman from Egypt, but he soon learned that most of them had taken treatment for some time and were past the grunting stage. He asked the office attendant if he might see the consulting physician, and he was told that he might, but he would be obliged to wait for a few minutes, as the consulting physician was then engaged.

After due time he was shown into the consultation room, and he then put his gatling (questioning) gun to work. "What do you charge for consultation?" Ans.: "Nothing, if you are interested in getting well." "Do you treat Chronic Diseases?" Ans.: "We make a specialty of treating Chronic Diseases of Men, Women and Children." Q.: "What are your methods of treating those diseases?" Ans.: "What do you mean?" Q.: "ARE YOUR METHODS EUROPEAN?" Ans.: "OUR METHODS ARE EUROPEAN, American, Oriental, Occidental, Accidental (if you please), Japanese, Chinese or any other ese (ease) we can get. To answer more fully and to the point, our methods comprise all that we have found to be good in all methods of treatment that we have investigated. For instance, as I will show you later, if you wish, that we are thoroughly equipped with all electrical appliances, such as the X-ray, and apply when we feel the application of static, galvanic, faradic and combined currents of electricity, the violet ray, blue ray, and the lilac ray. Our electric laboratory," said the Doctor with a touch of pride in his voice, "is complete." "And then we have a machine known as the Chattanooga Vibrator. By the help of this machine we are able to administer a treatment known as 'Vibratory Stimulation,' good in all circulatory disturbances, displacements, etc., and is often combined with Osteopathic treatment by our Osteopath, the results of which are similar. We also Cure RHEUMATISM with an electricity we have by which a patient is placed in a dry atmosphere twice as hot as boiling water, and the rheumatism is actually sweated out of him. His head is left out where he can breathe the fresh air and he really enjoys his bath instead of looking forward to it with dread, as you might imagine." The Doctor stopped for breath, and the man from Illinois thinking he had finished, was ready with another question. Q.: "Then you do not use medicine in your practice?" Ans.: "O, yes, in some cases we do, not in all. We cannot divorce drugs, but we do not depend entirely upon them, else we would not have use for our expensive equipment." Q.: "What school of medicine do you select your drugs from?" Ans.: "Any school, allopathic, homeopathic or eclectic, that in our experience has been the best; drugs of all three schools will be found in our laboratories. We never write prescriptions, but furnish all drugs from our offices." Q.: "Do you take incurable cases for treatment?" Ans.: "No, not unless we are urgently requested to by the unfortunate person's friends or relatives, and then we had rather not." Q.: "What do you treat?" "It would take us a long time to name them over, but here are a few of them: Diseases of the nose, throat and chest, such as catarrh, asthma, tuberculosis, growths and the like; diseases of the stomach and alimentary tract, such as dyspepsia, catarrh of the stomach and bowels, enlarged stomach, gastritis and appendicitis; diseases of the kidneys and bladder; piles; diseases of women; diseases of men; and chronic diseases of children. We don't stir up much excitement by our cures. Our patients are not those that were literally blind, and now see. They might have been blind to the fact that we could cure them. They are not those that were deaf and now hear, except that they were deaf to their friends who urged them to try us. They do not sing our praises on the street corner, but rather they go home and tell their neighbors."

During this time the Doctor failed to see the point the stranger was trying to make, so he turned to him with a question or two, as he was getting weary. "What can I do for YOU? You look like rather a healthy person to be consulting a Doctor." Alas! It is not myself that needs your services, but my only brother, who, we fear, has consumption. I have come as an advance guard and I want you to explain what your IMPROVED FRENCH TRANSFUSION METHOD of TREATING CONSUMPTION is." The Doctor simply said: "Come with me," and led the way into the electro-therapeutic room. A patient was being prepared for treatment and his permission was obtained for the lawyer to see him take his treatment. The patient was put in position on a stool and a large static machine put in operation. The lawyer stood aghast when he saw a current of electricity passing through the patient's chest in the form of a lilac ray, or light actually shining through to the other side, and then the medicine, which is so deadly poison to tubercular bacilli, but such a boon to mankind, was injected on the chest. The muscles on the patient's chest twitched slightly, but he smiled and says, "It don't hurt, but kind of pickles sometimes."

The lawyer turned to the consulting physician and grasped his hand. "I am satisfied. My brother will be up for examination tomorrow morning."

The NEW YORK DOCTORS are in their offices every day except Sunday, from 8:00 a. m. to 8:00 p. m. and from 7:00 to 8:00 in the evening.

HYDRO WON'T PAY REBATE

ended when Mr. Tarr and Mr. Schuyler suddenly left the mayor's office.

When the aldermen met at 5 o'clock last evening they went at once into secret session in the mayor's office. Alderman Carl Albin was absent, being in Denver attending the Knights of Pythias encampment.

At five minutes of 6 o'clock President Taff and Attorney Schuyler, of the Hydro company, suddenly left the meeting. The aldermen remained in secret session until 6:30 o'clock, when they went into open session in the council chamber.

A significant feature of the meeting was the fact that City Attorney William G. Robinson was not present at the secret session. Three weeks ago City Attorney Robinson told the aldermen that he was disgusted with the secret sessions, that a number of important bills had been killed in these sessions when the aldermen would not dare vote against them in open council; that he was going to do his talking in open meeting before the public, and that he would never go into another secret session. His absence from last night's session was self-explanatory.

When the aldermen met in open council, Mayor Hall submitted the Colorado college professors' report on the arc light tests. This report, which was printed in The Gazette last Sunday, gives the information that the Hydro's arc lamps average from 180 to 480 candlepower strength.

Another report was submitted by City Auditor George M. Perry. This report shows that the city has paid $19,943.79 to the Hydro company for lights. The report in full follows:

K. M. MacMillan, City Clerk:

two months intended for the excursion. Reynolds left the return railroad tickets for the deserted excursionists, who will return home September 1, instead of September 16, as intended.

Two previous excursions have been conducted by the missing Houston school principal. In 1903 he escorted a party to Red Cloud, N. M., and last year conducted a large excursion to this city, taking headquarters in Hegeman hall, Colorado college. He is said to have run deeply in debt last year.

Reynolds, together with his wife, moved in the best social circles of Houston. They are prominent attendants at the functions given by the "Z. Z." club, the most exclusive social organization of that city. Reynolds was formerly principal of the Houston Longfellow school, but last year conducted a private educational institution.

LARGE CROWDS ATTEND THE BIG SALE AT THE FAMOUS

The gigantic sale of the Famous Clothing stock at 19 and 21 West Huerfano by the Chicago Sales and Salvage Co. began yesterday with a rush. So great were the crowds during the day that the doors had to be closed, and the managements wishes to apologize for being taken by surprise in the rush and not having enough help on the floor, though a large corps of clerks were engaged. Today there will be plenty of help, and no matter how large the crowd, all will be waited on promptly and quickly.

This is one of the most gigantic clearance sales ever conducted in Colorado Springs. The entire stock of the Famous Clothing Co. is to be closed out at less than manufacturers' cost. This means that their entire stock of men's and boys' clothing and furnishing goods will be distributed among the homes of this vicinity at less than the cost of the raw material.

The entire stock of this store is in the hands of the Chicago Sales & Salvage Co., of which Charles P. Bates is manager. The stock must be closed out in just ten days, and Mr. Bates proposes to do this by making unheard-of reductions on every article in the store. The stock must be disposed of. Cost is no object.

For the past three days Mr. Bates and a corps of clerks have been engaged in arranging the stock and marking it down for this sale. Men's clothing, a complete and seasonable line, men's furnishings, hats and shoes are all in line for the reduction.

After looking over the ground at the Garden of the Gods, where the visitors will be established for a Bohemian night's entertainment, Major Lee said he would immediately arrange for the shipping to this city of tents, blankets, cots and other needed equipment for the encampment.

PUNISHMENT FOR REBATERS.

A FEW DAYS ago a special Federal grand jury in Chicago indicted the Standard Oil Company for rebating. Following its usual procedure in such cases the company at once filed a demurrer but if this is overruled and the Government secures a judgment upon the other obstacles sure to be encountered, the penalty will be the most that can be imposed, namely, a fine of $20,000. This is because the prosecution was brought under the Elkins interstate commerce law, the imprisonment clause of which was repealed several years ago. Under this law as it now stands a rebater may be fined but not sent to jail, and to the Standard Oil Company a fine of even $20,000 is about as severe punishment as thirty minutes in jail is to a wife-beater. It could pay a fine of $20,000 every day for the next year without feeling an appreciable loss, for a slight increase in the price of oil would make good the deficiency, and thus in the long run the consumer would foot the bill, as usual.

The rate regulation bill passed by the last session of Congress restored the imprisonment clause, but this provision will not go into effect until September 28. We can imagine how different the attitude of the Standard Oil officials would be if certain conviction stared them in the face, carrying with it jail sentences of from six months to a year. They can afford to laugh at the prospect of conviction when it means only a fine, but the thought of Mr. Rockefeller, or Mr. Rogers, or Mr. Archbold in jail, eating prison fare, sleeping on a prison bunk, and treated in every respect like any other common offender against the law, is an entirely different thing. It is perfectly safe to say that any of these gentlemen would gladly pay more than his entire income in fines than to submit to this form of punishment.

A rigidly enforced jail sentence for one big railroad or trust magnate would do more to break up corporate lawlessness than all of the fines or other punitive measures that could be resorted to in the next decade. A concern that can afford to pay several hundred thousand dollars a year in legal fees to find ways to evade the law can afford to pay all of the fines that may be assessed against it. Fortunately the country has awakened to a realization of this fact, and in future prosecutions similar to those now pending against the Standard Oil Company are likely to be directed against the men who are actually responsible for the wrong-doing rather than against the corporations.

INSANITY INCREASING.

OF LATE THERE has been a good deal of discussion in regard to the supposed increase in the number of insane persons per 100,000 of the population. Whether there actually is such an increase has been seriously disputed, though the most reliable statistics indicate that it exists. The discussion is somewhat similar to that concerning crime statistics. All figures on this subject, both official and unofficial, show a greater percentage of crime than in former years, but it is argued that this does not necessarily prove an actual increase in crime but only greater vigilance in the detection of crime. More arrests are made now than in former years, but this may prove nothing more than greater efficiency on the part of the police in the detection of wrongdoing.

The Census Bureau has issued a bulletin in which figures are presented which apparently verify the belief that insanity is increasing in every part of the country. The number of insane persons in the asylums or hospitals during all or part of the year 1904 was 189,773. The number of insane in hospitals per 100,000 of population increased from 81.6 in 1880 to 118.2 in 1890, and 186.2 on December 31, 1903.

The bulletin explains that "Undoubtedly a large part of this increase in ratios is due to an increased use of hospitals by those who in the past had a deep-rooted prejudice against them, and to a more complete enumeration, particularly at the last census. Nevertheless these figures point to an increase in the extent of insanity in the country as a whole. This view is emphasized by the fact that in proportion to the population of the country the number of insane in the hospitals in 1903 was larger than the total number of insane, including those not in hospitals, enumerated in 1880, the ratios being 186.2 per 100,000 of population in 1903 and 173.3 in 1880."

Some interesting facts are brought out in the bulletin. More than four-fifths of the insane in hospitals are supported at public expense, the annual cost of their maintenance being approximately $21,000,000. A large proportion of the inmates of the hospitals are young persons between the ages of 20 and 40. The foreign-born are larger than the native insane, and the negroes larger than the white insane. Among the foreign-born population there is more insanity among females than among males. Of the 328 hospitals for the insane, 176 are public and 152 private in character.

The increase in insanity, if it actually exists, is without doubt due more to the stress of modern life than to any other cause. In the cities the quiet life of a generation ago is a thing of the past. Everybody is in a hurry, everybody is working at breakneck pace to make money. Even recreation is a strenuous business, almost as wearing on the nerves as work. There is no one busy man of affairs out of a thousand who knows how to rest in the way that will do him the most good, that is, how to give both brain and body complete relief from labor. This condition prevails everywhere in the country, indeed it is characteristic of American life and there is hardly a doubt that it tends toward the breaking down of the nervous system and the ultimate impairment of the mental faculties.

INDIGNANT LYNCHERS.

IT WILL BE remembered that a few months ago a mob in Springfield, Missouri, broke into the jail and lynched three negroes. Justice has been rather slow in avenging this outrage, but some progress was made when a grand jury returned indictments against two members of the mob on a charge of murder. Now comes a report that force has been served from some anonymous source that if these two men are punished the members of the grand jury and the Governor will also be lynched.

If it were not for the abundant evidence to the contrary one might conclude after reading this news that Missouri is a backwoods community with no higher tribunal than the court of Judge Lynch, and that anybody who dared oppose the findings of that court would stand in danger of its peculiar kind of punishment. Mobs have broken into jails, taken out prisoners and murdered them both before and since the Springfield affair, but they are usually glad to keep very quiet about their performances. So far as we know this is the first time that the members of a mob or any of their sympathizers have had the brazen impudence to make threats against officers of the law who sought to bring them to justice.

Of course it is sheer idiocy for any unknown or unnamed set of cowards to indulge in the pastime of writing threatening letters to these officials. A grand jury which has enough backbone to indict mob leaders for murder is not likely to be intimidated by such silly threats, and this is equally true of a Governor who shows the courage to push prosecutions for mob violence. The work of the Springfield grand jury ended with the return of its indictments, so it has no further connection with the case, but unless Governor Folk has lost the nerve he displayed in the days when he was circuit attorney of St. Louis he is likely to make things decidedly warm for every member of the Springfield mob whose guilt can be established.

Chicago street cars have managed to kill 225 people in nineteen months. This might lead to the supposition that in Illinois execution by street car is the legal method of disposing of criminals, but such is not the case. The only crime of these people was in getting in the way of reckless motormen.

An exchange remarks that Mr. Rockefeller should at least be given credit for minding his own business. There are a good many once independent oil refiners in the country who also give him credit for minding their business so actively that after a while they didn't have any business.

J. Edward Addicks has contributed a dollar to the Republican campaign fund. However this is not the first time Mr. Addicks has given of his bountiful store to advance the party interests. He is always quite generous in campaign times.

The law of compensation is still working. A St. Louis baggage smasher handled a suit case so roughly the other day that a revolver which it contained was discharged, the bullet passing through the smasher's leg.

A horse named Elihu Root finished last in a race at Rio Janeiro which was attended by the distinguished American Secretary of State. Which merely shows that there is nothing so uncertain as horse racing.

There are more than 2,000 applicants for meat inspectorships in the packing houses, many of them, no doubt, people who want to get even for having been compelled to eat embalmed beef in the past.

LA FOLLETTE SAYS ROOSEVELT WILL RUN IN 1908.

From the Baltimore Sun.

The fact that Mr. Bryan will soon return to his native land has set the politicians talking—not only those of Mr. Bryan's political faith, but also Republicans. At Lima, Ohio, Senator La Follette of Wisconsin declared it of be his belief that "William J. Bryan would be the next president unless President Roosevelt would consent to run again." "It looks," he added, "as if President Roosevelt must make the race again in 1908. He is the one man to beat William J. Bryan. In my opinion it will be Roosevelt against Bryan."—Senator La Follette must know, of course, that on the night of the election in 1904 Mr. Roosevelt declared that he would not again be the candidate of his party for President. Yet there are Republicans who seem to be confident that party exigencies will require him to be the Republican standard-bearer in 1908. Nor does the president's secretary, Mr. Loeb, issue an emphatic denial that Mr. Roosevelt will accept the nomination in 1908, than some Republican statesman boils up to say that he is the only hope of the party and must and will save his party from disaster. It is an exceedingly interesting situation and in some respects an embarrassing one. Clearly many Republican politicians are determined Mr. Roosevelt shall not be bound by his declaration that he will not be in the race in 1908. Will the force turn to reconsider?

DISTURBING THE MARKETS.

From the Springfield Republican.

The automobile is largely responsible for several noteworthy disturbances in the commodity market. It lifted the price of rubber to an almost intolerable figure for the common uses. Gasoline is another commodity whose price has soared under the auto demand. Prices of leather are now reaching record figures and the demand for it in the luxurious upholstering of auto carriages is said to be an important factor. We may have to go without rubbers or rubber coats and we may have to go without boots and shoes, but we must have our automobiles.

LIEUT. PIKE'S DIARY

For One Hundred Years Ago Today

Saturday, 4th August. We embarked at 4 o'clock and proceeded extremely well in the barge to a French hunting camp (evacuated) 12 miles to breakfast, the battoux coming up late as we changed Lands. About 12 o'clock passed the Grand Fork which is equal in size to the branch of the river on which we pursued our route. Waited to dine at the rocks called the Swallows Nest on the western shore, above the Forks. The portage having called nearly half an hour, the crews are convinced that it is not the boat but the men that make the difference. Each took their own boat, after which we proceeded very well, the water being good and the men in spirits. Saw one elk on the shore, also met an old man alone hunting, from whom we obtained the information of consequence. Encamped on the western shore on Mine river, passed the place where the chief called Belle Oseau and others were killed. Distance advanced, 31 miles.

The Belle Oseau was killed on the Sioux in the year 1804, in a boat of Mitchel de Lizer, when on his way down to St. Louis, in order to join the first deputation of his nation, who were forwarded to the seat of government by Governor Lewis. A particular relation of the event has no doubt been given by that gentleman. This chief had a son who accompanied me to the Pawnee nation, who for his honorable deportment, attachment to our government, amiableness of disposition, and the respect and esteem with which he was held by his companions is entitled to the attention of our agents to his nation."

Open Parliament

RUSSIAN TYRANNY.

To the Editor of The Gazette:

When the Russian government went to war with Japan every nation expressed sympathy for the Japanese. Here rises a question: Why was this sympathy expressed? The answer is: Cries of the tortured men and women heard the world over. The Russian government has taken its best citizens, its greatest scientists and philosophers, and tortured them by sending them to dark Siberia. This is why the Japanese government overpowered her.

The worst enemy Russia has is at home, because, when a nation tries to oppress its own people its downfall must come sooner or later. When the war ceased and the Russian government came home it tried again to kill its best men and women, the only crime of the men and women whom the Russian government tortures and kills is that they want liberty and justice. The best men and women the world over help the revolutionists in Russia to gain their object. If they could only help them with a little finance to buy ammunition to fight back the Russian tyrannical government! But their weapon is only "an evil for an evil and a wrong for a wrong." Two wrongs do not make a right, but at present this is the only weapon that the Russian revolutionists have, freedom of speech and press being denied and the Russian parliament abolished, so the only weapon that is left is the gun and the bomb, which are very poor, as force is a sign of weakness, but they cannot do any better. Therefore, we must help them in their undertaking, help them to abolish the tyrannical government and establish peace and order.

But this is not the real remedy to establish peace in Russia. There is a hidden power. We condemn our fellow man when he tries to eat his fellow man, but how about those Russian bond holders? Every time the Russian bond holders sit down to eat they eat human flesh, only in a different shape; when they give money to the Russian government it means that the Russian government has more power to kill more of its best men, women and children. We don't know half of the torture and tyranny that is going on in Russia. Every time we lend money to the Russian government they have an opportunity to kill more people, therefore, these bond holders are absolutely cannibals. Of course, they are unconscious of it, but what is the difference between eating human flesh and lending money to give the power to kill thousands and hundreds of thousands of people when their cry is only liberty?

Therefore, I ask in the name of humanity, in the name of justice, in the name of liberty of those who hold Russian bonds, to call in their money and not lend any more. If you do lend more you will never be able to get back the interest, for half of Russia's property has been destroyed and burned and its best people killed, so when the Russian government tries to pay the interest on its bonds it will have to raise the taxes and the people will not and cannot stand the pressure of heavy taxation. Therefore, you will make a better investment by calling in the bonds and refusing to lend any more. Then the Russian revolutionists will have power to overthrow Czar Nicholas' power and abolish tyranny and despotism and establish justice and liberty.

I. T. U. WILL RENEW CONTRACT WITH NEWSPAPER PUBLISHERS

According to the delegates to the convention of arbitration, the United Typographical union yesterday morning by a vote of 44 to 1 accepted the renewal of the contract with the American Newspaper Publishers' association.

The agreement is for five years, beginning May 1, 1907, and provides that any publisher employing only union men shall be guaranteed against strikes, walkouts or boycotts, provided he shall arbitrate all differences regarding wages, hours and working conditions. If negotiations between the publisher and local union fails, the question can be referred to the national board to consist of the three members of the executive council of the International Typographical union and the three members of the standing committee of the publishers' association.

The question, one of the most important to be considered by the convention, precipitated an oratorical battle. The Zanesville and New Orleans delegates, because of local difficulties under the former agreement, had been instructed against any arbitration whatsoever. The Zanesville proposition, reported upon unfavorably by the laws committee, was almost unanimously defeated.

President Lynch took the floor in behalf of the measure, and in a strong declaration said:

"If you want peace in the printing trade of the great newspapers of the country, you have here the instrument. The publisher's main desire is to be absolutely certain that his paper will be published every day. He must protect himself. We do not arbitrate any of our laws, simply the questions of wages, hours and working conditions.

"The American Publishers' association has gone further in its dealings with a labor organization than has any other organization in the United States. There is just one argument against this agreement—and The Zanesville Signal has it—no arbitration.

"I trust I am speaking quite within the bounds of truth when I state that your organization has never before prospered so much in its relations with our daily newspapers, nor have our members ever enjoyed more of the industrial peace," said Frederick R. Driscoll, labor commissioner for the American Newspaper Publishers association, in discussing the arbitration agreement which has existed between the I. T. U. and the American Publishers association for the last five years and the renewal of which was under discussion at yesterday morning's session.

"We must now determine what course shall be pursued in the future. You are acquainted with the result of the work of the joint conference, representing both of our organizations, and, I presume, are favorably impressed with the statements and arguments of President Lynch concerning the same. If it meets with your approval, it will then become my duty to submit it to our next convention to be held next February for its consideration and action. I will take pleasure at that time in recommending its adoption, for I believe it to be the best arrangement that can be made under existing conditions.

"Many of our publishers, however, feel that they are unjustly burdened, so that when they come to approve this new agreement they know they are binding themselves to conditions, many of which are onerous, uneconomical and in some instances unfair. I refer, in part, to the requirements covering the resetting of matter, the priority law so called, and the union's control of the foreman.

"The great majority of our organization, representing substantially all the leading and representative daily newspapers of the United States and Canada, are fully disposed to go more than halfway to meet you on the platform of friendship.

"If you will be so kindly disposed in your action at this convention it will materially assist in securing from our convention a more hearty approval of the proposed renewal and a continuance of the policy of arbitration as expressed in the form submitted to you.

"I do not wish to be understood, that, without these concessions on your part, our convention will not approve the proposed agreement. Its chief desire is for industrial peace.

"We met here today after more than five years' experience with arbitration, settling differences by reason and not by force. The publishers emphatically desire not only a continuance of these pleasant relations, but a renewal thereof with such improved conditions as will bring us closer together.

"Before closing I wish thankfully to acknowledge the continued hearty cooperation of President Lynch in preserving industrial peace between our members, and also to express my appreciation to the members of the executive council for faithfully and earnestly working with our special standing committee in joint conference to the same end. The new arbitration agreement will stand as a future guide in the field of trade union relations, furnishing an example for all other trade unions to follow.

"I congratulate you upon your meeting here at this location of the Union Printers home, that magnificent benefaction, established and maintained by your organization, and I believe unequaled in the world. It is a grand tribute to the principle of brotherhood and fitly illustrates that love of humanity which should govern us in all walks and conditions of life."

EIGHT-HOUR FIGHT HEARTILY INDORSED

"Be it resolved, That we hereby express our full confidence in the ability and integrity of the executive council of this body and that we congratulate the members thereof, each and all, on the wisdom and prudent foresight shown in the conduct of the contest for an eight-hour day.

And we do especially indorse the action of the executive council in the levy of the ten per cent assessment and commend its administration and expenditure of funds so raised."

The introduction of this resolution near the close of yesterday morning's session of the International Typographical convention by Delegate W. T. McCullough of Omaha showed that the temper of the delegates is unmistakeably for a continuance of the eight-hour fight and is evidence of their willingness to continue to pay the ten per cent assessment.

The reading of the measure was followed by the greatest enthusiasm. Realizing the importance of the declaration and grasping its significance, motions were made that the vote be a rising vote. Every man in the house rose to his feet when the vote was called for. The convention went on record unanimously.

Every reference to the eight-hour day during the two days' proceedings of the convention has been met with high enthusiasm. It is expected that the eight-hour committee, as well as the presidents of fighting unions, will submit their reports on the situation tomorrow, at which time the decisive action will be taken by the convention.

RESOLUTION RECOMMENDS INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION

The executive council of the International Typographical union take a stand as favoring the peace of nations through international arbitration, to the purpose of a resolution introduced by Mr. Henry, of Lynn, Mass. He would have all local unions ascertain the attitude of the candidates for congress and ask them to join the International Parliamentary union. The resolution also instructs the secretary to invite the American Federation of Labor, the Knights of Labor, the Western Federation of Miners, and the central organizations of other countries, to take the same line of action. The resolution was referred to the committee on political policy.

REFERENDUM QUESTION IS CONSIDERED BY AUXILIARY

The question of abolishing the referendum occupied the attention of the delegates at yesterday afternoon's session of the Women's International auxiliary to the International Typographical union, held in Woodmen hall, opposite the union headquarters. The discussion was about evenly divided on the question and for several hours the discussion was very heated. Although it seemed for a time as if there might be a division, harmony was restored by a resolution which referred the referendum to a vote of the different auxiliaries and left the constitution unchanged for the present.

The allowance for the expenses of the International officers during international convention was reduced from $10 to $5 per day.

A resolution making the international president a salaried official was defeated. The secretary-treasurer is the only international officer receiving a salary from the auxiliary.

President Donnell presided at yesterday's sessions. At the morning session, telegrams expressing greetings and regrets that they were unable to attend the convention, were received from the first vice president, Mrs. Duncan McDougal, of Toronto, and fourth vice president, Mrs. John A. [illegible] of Nashville, Tenn. Reports of various committees and officers were read.

Resolutions which have been introduced up to this time were referred to committees. At the morning session of the delegates [illegible] during the morning [illegible] Mrs. George [illegible] president of the [illegible] Union, League of Denver, will address the Central Information [illegible] Promotion and Patronage of Union Labels."

Most of the important business will come up tomorrow, when the election of officers will be settled, and the officers for the ensuing year installed. The secretary-treasurer, Mrs. C. E. McKee, of Indianapolis, is the only officer who was re-elected. Following are the officers elected: Mrs. A. W. Brown, Washington, D. C., president; Mrs. D. McLeod, Toronto, first vice president; Mrs. W. B. Ogden, Cincinnati, second vice president; Mrs. Charles Carter, Colorado Springs, and Mrs. George Fraser, Baltimore, vice presidents; Mrs. C. E. McKee, Indianapolis, Ind., secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Bert Cox, Omaha, Neb., chaplain; Mrs. Neal Crowley, Pueblo, guard.

Last night the delegates and exchanges attended the theater and ball at Broadmoor Casino.

MAY PENSION AGED PRINTERS

QUESTION WILL COME BEFORE THE 1907 CONVENTION—IMPORTANT RESOLUTION IS ADOPTED.

Action on the question of pensioning aged and incapacitated printers was taken yesterday afternoon by the I. T. U. convention when the resolution introduced by Delegate James D. Coughlin of Chicago union No. 16 was adopted by the delegates upon the favorable report of the committee on resolutions. The resolution provides that President Lynch appoint a committee of three to draw up a plan and report to the 1907 convention. A similar resolution was also presented by Mr. Dirks of St. Louis.

Several definite suggestions for the providing of a fixed pension to printers over certain ages have been made in resolutions, but it is probable that all will be reported unfavorably by the committee, leaving the question entirely in the hands of the pension committee to be appointed.

Miss Teresa McDonald of the Washington delegation, Mr. Sterling of Boston, and Delegate H. T. Mattox of New Orleans have each submitted propositions of this character.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Better Than Three Doctors.

Three years ago, we had three doctors with our little boy and everything that they could do seemed in vain. At last when all hope seemed to be gone we began using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in a few hours he began to improve. Today he is as healthy a child as parents could wish for.—Mrs. B. J. Johnson, Linton, Miss. For sale by all druggists.

MEN PAST SIXTY IN DANGER.

More than half of mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually enlargement of prostate gland. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at the first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Rodney Burnett, Rockport, Mo., writes: "I suffered with sciatica and prostate gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure I feel better than I have for twenty years, although I am now 91 years old." # SPECULATION IN PACIFICS IS FELT

UNION PACIFIC BEARS BIG WATER MARK—CONSTANT TRADING MATERIALLY INFLUENCED.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Today's stock market was made up in overwhelming proportion of the excited speculation in the Harriman Pacifics. The background of this movement was the concentrated buying of the two stocks by commission houses, usually credited with conducting operations in the stock market for capitalists closely associated in the control of these railroad properties.

Keenly following the movement was a cloud of speculators of all degrees of prominence, down to the small room trader, seeking a profit of a slight fraction on each separate trade. The constant trading in and out of this class helped materially to inflate the volume of the transactions. But the character of the main buying was accepted as evidence of the conclusion of the important plans regarding the properties. That these plans had to do with a dividend policy was taken for granted.

It was assumed very confidently that an increase in the dividend on Union Pacific had been determined and that dividend payments were to be initiated on Southern Pacific, the yearly rate for the latter being most commonly assumed at four per cent, but with conjecture running to a higher rate. There was a current supposition that the relation of St. Paul to these properties was also involved in the coming development, and that some form of control of that property, either by issue of bonds in exchange for the stock of otherwise, was to contemplation.

These various surmises were lacking in authentic confirmation, and so far as could be learned, no formal official action has been taken yet on the subject. This is expected to be done at the meetings of the executive committee of the Union Pacific, and friends of the directors of St. Paul, which are fixed for tomorrow.

Attention became more and more concentrated on the movement in the two Harriman stocks, and in the final hour of trading they moved up to their previous record prices through a flood of offerings, and closed strong at the top level. In September of 1902, Southern Pacific was lifted to 81 1-4 during the operations by the pool in the stock headed by James R. Keene. The campaign at that time was based upon the confident assumption that dividends were at hand and the refusal of the control to grant this expectation was the occasion of bitter animosities, which found their way ultimately into the courts. Union Pacific's previous record price of 160 1-2 was touched in January of this year. Top prices today were 81 7-8 for Southern Pacific and 163 7-8 for Union Pacific.

The only important supplement in the market today to these movements was in Reading and in Pennsylvania, the former coming early in the day and the latter in the last hour. The market otherwise was narrow and generally sluggish, and the profit-taking in the general list under cover of the strength in the leaders made the tone irregular up to the closing. There was no notable change in general conditions. Rates for time loans continued to advance, and bids for 90 days' accommodation were raised to five per cent with the asking prices at 5 1-4 per cent. Rates for call loans showed no important change. Foreign exchange yielded somewhat from the point reached on the recovery, after the disputed reports of gold engagements for the benefit of New York. The money market is gaining on subtreasury operations, by reason of large pension payments, but shipments of currency to the interior are being made by the banks.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $2,015,000.

U. S. bonds were advanced 3-4 per cent on call.

WHEAT IS WEAK DESPITE RAINS

MARKET INFLUENCED BY KANSAS CROP WHICH IS REPORTED SECOND LARGEST ON RECORD.

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—Despite rains in parts of the Dakotas and Minnesota, the wheat market opened easy. As trading progressed, the weakness became more pronounced, and before the end of the session prices had reached a new low record mark for the season. At the start, the market was influenced by the Kansas crop report, which claimed that this year's yield of wheat in that state would be the second largest on record. Later reports from the northwest, stating that the movement of new spring wheat would soon begin, caused increased depressions in the pit.

Foreign news was also favorable to the bears. One dispatch asserted that weather in Southern Russia was excellent, and that the movement of wheat was large. Throughout the day, there was free selling by local longs and outside holders. The market closed weak at almost the lowest point of the day. September opened unchanged to a shade lower at 70⅞@71c, to 71⅛c and then declined to 70⅛c. Final quotations were at 70⅜@⅝c.

Reports that country acceptances were increasing led to liberal realizing in September corn, and resulted in decided weakness. Excellent weather for the growing crop also helped to depress prices. September opened unchanged to ⅛c lower at 49⅝c to 49½c, sold up to 49⅝c and then declined to 48⅝c. The close was at 48⅝c.

Oats ruled quiet and weak. September opened unchanged at 31⅛c, sold off to 30⅞c and closed at the lowest point.

Liberal receipts of live hogs had a weakening effect on the provisions market at the start, but the market soon overcame this initial weakness and ruled firm the last half of the day. A lively demand by shorts caused a fair advance in prices. September pork closed up 20 cents at $17.20. Lard was up 5@7½c at $8.67½. Ribs were 2½@5c higher at $8.82½.

BACK GIVES OUT

Plenty of Colorado Springs Readers Have This Experience.

You tax the kidneys—overwork them—They can't keep up the continual strain. The back gives out—it aches and pains. Urinary troubles set in.

Don't wait longer—take Doan's Kidney Pills.

Colorado Springs people tell you how they act.

F. J. Weber, miner, of 846 E. Willamette street, says: "It is over three years ago since I recommended Doan's Kidney Pills through our Colorado Springs paper. They cured our boy, then eight years old, of kidney complaint, from which he had been greatly annoyed for three or four years. He complained of his back hurting him so much, and he was troubled with urinary weakness. The first box of Doan's Kidney Pills relieved him so greatly that we followed up the treatment, by giving him, I think, four boxes, when a cure was effected. If, during the three years which have gone by, there were light symptoms of kidney trouble, they were so unimportant that they were scarcely worth noticing, much less requiring the use of any medicine. I cheerfully re-endorse the statement heretofore given and advise parents who have children annoyed in this way to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial."

Plenty more proof like this from Colorado Springs people. Call at D. Y. Butcher Drug Co.'s store and ask what their customers report.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Woman's Nightmare

No woman's happiness can be complete without children; it is her nature to love and want them as much so as it is to love the beautiful and pure. The critical ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so fraught with dread, pain, suffering and danger, that the very thought of it fills her with apprehension and horror. There is no necessity for the reproduction of life to be either painful or dangerous. The use of Mother's Friend so prepares the system for the coming event that it is safely passed without any danger. This great and wonderful remedy is always applied externally and has carried thousands of women through this trying crisis without suffering.

Return Tickets

A large per cent of those who have come here this season for their health bought round trip tickets that are good until October 1st. They expected that by that time their lungs would be so nearly well that they could go home with safety. It would certainly be very interesting and instructive if it could be known how many hundred people have come with that same plan within the past ten years, and how many had given up the plan and stayed here, and how many had gone home only to grow worse and die, and how many had gone home and found that they had made a mistake in going home and had returned here again only to find that they could not improve as they did while here the first time. This experience is repeated over and over again and again in hundreds of cases. These cases prove that where one depends upon the climate for a cure that it is not at all safe to leave it until the patient has been here long enough to thoroughly cover over and encapsulate the diseased places in the lungs. This takes from one to five years, and even then it is not always safe to go into a low altitude. It is interesting to note how differently patients who adopt the Shephard treatment for diseases of the lungs can carry out their plans. A large per cent of those who come here in the early summer and begin the treatment at once, take it home with them before their railroad tickets expire and by continuing the treatment in their homes will get well. If Dr. Shepard tells them that it is safe for them to do so, there is comparatively no danger. Sometimes he advises them to stay a month or two longer, and sometimes he advises them to return to their homes earlier than October 1st, especially if their hearts are weak, and they are not improving here. It is not an uncommon experience to find after being here a few weeks that the circulation is imperfect. That one feels weak and really worse than when they came. These are the cases that are wonderfully helped by combining this treatment with the climate. The instrument used opens the unused air cells and makes it easy to breathe. The remedies that are used in connection with it relieves the circulation. They control the night sweats and fever and the treatment soon adds new life and vigor and courage, and within a reasonable time makes it possible for one to live safely wherever they choose. ## CLAIRVOYANT.

ST. GEORGE ORMONDE

GENUINE CLAIRVOYANT,

208 Manitou Ave., over Postoffice, Manitou, Colo.

WONDERFUL PROPHECY.

Ormonde, in San Francisco last January, prophesied the horrible earthquake which took place there, fleeing himself and warning his friends to do the same. His office was, at that time, at 1007½ Market St., which is now completely destroyed.

TELLS YOUR FULL NAME.

As a test to the reading without asking a question, he will tell your name and the object of your call. Ormonde is not to be classed with partly developed mediums. His clairvoyant power is a natural-born gift.

PAST—PRESENT—FUTURE.

Clear as crystal. See Ormonde. Gives private instructions in the philosophy of the ancient Hindoo to those that are interested in occultism. He teaches the Hindoo methods of concentration, polarization and focalization, which enables you to cause outward conditions to conform with your inward desires. Tells whom and when to marry, removes evil influence, restores affections, cures drunkenness, and helps where all others fail. Success guaranteed.

IF GOING TO SEE A MEDIUM.

Why not see the best, as the best is the cheapest in the end. Better consult no clairvoyant at all than one who is unable to help you, for false prophets do more harm than good. High-class patronage solicited, those capable of appreciating the powers of an intellectual psychic. I teach clairvoyance, hypnotism and personal magnetism and develop mediums. Mediums with difficult cases that they cannot handle consult me.

Guaranteed success when all others fail. My regular $2.00 readings, $1.00; no fee in advance; pay if satisfied. The only adept of Hindoo occult mysteries practicing in America at the present time.

ORMONDE, Over the Postoffice, Manitou, Colo.

SPIRITUAL MEDIUM.

Mrs. [illegible] spiritual adviser, psychic, clairvoyant and clairaudient. Readings daily. Religious and test meetings Thursday and Sunday evenings, 8 p. m., sharp. Hours, 2 to 5. 11½ E. Pike's Peak, Sa[illegible] Building, upstairs. No charges.

SPIRITUAL lecture by Rev. Woodrow, 112½ E. Pike's Peak, at Mrs. Sampson's rooms, August 16, Barnes bldg.

MRS. HENDRICKS, clairvoyant, readings daily. Ruxton Ave., Manitou. See sign at tent.

MRS. THOMPSON, clairvoyant, 50c and $1.00. Hours 9 to 8. 30 S. Nevada.
